Lewes Live Literature presents Against the Current

An event in partnership with Pinned up – the focus for the panel discussion at LLL will be a recent lockdown project at HMP Lewes. Pinned up co-director David Kendall talks to Steve Newark and Gary Mansfield, both ex-prisoners whose lives have been transformed by their encounters with writing and the arts while in prison.
Tuesday 3rd August 7.45pm.
Tickets £7 in advance or £10 on the door.
Capacity is restricted so please book soon to avoid disappointment.
Visit www.leweslivelit.co.uk for more info.

Lewes Live Literature presents LABYRINTH

A second chance to see this riveting physical theatre production performed by Portuguese actress Marta Carvalho.
Wednesday 4th August 7.45pm.
Tickets £10 in advance or £12 on the door.
Capacity is restricted so please book soon to avoid disappointment.
Visit www.leweslivelit.co.uk for more info.

Lewes Live Literature presents An El Dorado Evening

Grace Nichols reads her lockdown garden poems; John Agard gives his poetic spin on the biblical figure of Job whose patience is tested to the limit; plus, Keith Waithe – poet of the flute – in a unique collaboration that pays homage to the evolution of the instrument from bone flute to piccolo.

Friday 6th August 8pm
Tickets £12 in advance or £15 on the door.
Capacity is restricted so please book soon to avoid disappointment.
